Day 1

We meet in Billings this morning and shuttle directly to Red Lodge. We'll begin our introductory hike, a gentle uphill trail along the Lake Fork of Rock Creek where we commonly see moose along the beautiful rushing waters.

Day 2

This morning we drive around the mountain range along the sky-high ranch country of the Beartooth Front to get to one of the most stunning locations in the area: Mystic Lake, a large lake made even larger by a hydroelectric dam.

Day 3

Today we drive up the Beartooth Pass, considered one of the most beautiful drives in the country. We continue to Yellowstone National Park and the Lamar Valley. The Lamar area is home to the largest herds of bison, elk, and deer in the park and the predators such as wolves that are often near them.

Day 4

Today we drive the Grand Loop of Yellowstone and visit all the major hotspots. We'll gaze upon Grand Prismatic Spring, hike to Mystic Falls, watch Old Faithful erupt, and see the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone. We finish with an evening drive through the Hayden Valley to see if we can spot wildlife.

Day 5

This morning we'll jump in the Boiling River for a morning soak, head out for a hike on the Beaver Ponds Trail that features beaver, muskrat, and potentially bears, and pop over to Mammoth Hot Springs. In the afternoon, we'll transfer to Bozeman.

Day 6

Today is our longest travel day, a five-hour drive (plus stops) from Bozeman to Whitefish. We'll make a stop along the way at the Clearwater River Canoe Trail where we'll paddle the 3.5-mile gently winding river to Seeley Lake - one of the most popular lake destinations in Montana.

Day 7

We visit our second national park of the trip, Glacier National Park, today. We go up the famous Going-to-the-Sun Road, hike the Highline Trail, and explore the Lake McDonald Lodge.

Day 8

Today we rise early to explore the east side of the Park and the Many Glacier area. We hike to Iceberg Lake, stop at Ptarmigan Falls, and continue to the lake (with icebergs floating in it!)

Day 9

On our final morning of this Best of Montana tour, we'll head to the Whitefish Mountain ski resort. You'll have the option of taking the chairlift up and hiking down or, if you are still energetic, doing the reverse. You'll have time to check out and grab lunch in town before shuttling to the airport in nearby Kalispell. What a vacation!
