Lodging in Whitefish

Day 1

We meet you in Whitefish, Montana. After introductions, we will head to Whitefish Mountain for our first hike. You have your choice of riding the gondola to the top of the mountain for a hike down; hiking up and taking a ride down, or hiking both directions. From the top you will have outstanding views of the vast forested expanses. After our hike, we'll head to dinner at Whitefish Brewing for some good food and local Montana beers.

Day 2

Today we explore Glacier National Park, rated America's best national park for hiking. Our first stop is Avalanche Lake. This is a hike that will take your breath away; it is truly astonishing for those not accustomed to hiking in the mountains. (Please note this will be a "trailhead service" hike as there are no available permits for guided hikes in the park.) After our hike, we'll stop by Lake McDonald Lodge for lunch and then hop on one of the park's fleet of 1930s red buses and take a three- to four-hour tour up Going-to-the-Sun Road, the famous road that heads up and over the mountainous spine of the park. We finish with dinner at Belton Chalet, a historic train depot.

Day 3

We hop on our bikes and start our 22-mile out-and-back ride on a paved, narrow forest service road to Whitefish Lake. In the afternoon we will shuttle back to Whitefish Lake to see it from a different perspective - on the water - as we rent kayaks or stand-up paddleboards for a fun and leisurely paddle on the water. This evening our dinner is at Craggy Range, a modern "gastropub" with a nice patio and multiple fancy drink options.

Day 4

This morning we visit a local horse outfitter for a ride in the scenic countryside surrounding Whitefish and Glacier. In the afternoon, we'll go river rafting on the Middle Fork of the Flathead River just outside the park. With Class III rapids it is easy enough for novices but with enough whitewater to be fun for everyone. We'll return to Whitefish, have a little downtime, and then enjoy a final dinner at Logan's Grill in our hotel.

Day 5

This morning we will take a final walk on the Whitefish Trail, an awesome community asset consisting of 36+ miles of natural surface trail comprised of gated logging roads, scenic overlooks, single-track trails, and stacked loops. After our walk, we'll return to the hotel to shower, check out, and say our goodbyes.
